

Then it's good bye to my present group of students and hello to a new group.
I hate to part with the ones I have now, for they are lovely boys and girls.

Last Wednesday evening, your mother, dad and Helen came to call. Your father brought us some excellent pork. Since then mother and I have been enjoying the pork meat and gravies. We have buckwheat cakes and grease gravy each morning for breakfast, and it's pretty good eating on these cold mornings.

Yesterday morning,
